UNIVERSITY

Eligibility

Students eligible for program services must meet at least one of the following:

- Low income, as defined by the US Ed index
- First generation, meaning that neither parent has a four-year college degree
- Have a documented physical or learning disability

The Student Support Services (SSS) program at Oregon State University provides opportunities for academic growth and development, assists students with basic college requirements and serves to motivate students toward the successful completion of their postsecondary education.

The goal of SSS is to increase the college retention and graduation rates of its participants and to help students make the transition from one level of higher education to the next.
